Homeowner came to table and requested a translator. Lynn requested a volunteer. Two young girls volunteered.

Minutes from July 21st Board meeting read and approved.

Treasurer's Report:

Checking: 53,118.85

Savings: 5,628.71

Topic A: RCM Report	Presenter: Connie
Discussion: 93% of the 2009 annual dues have been paid and 44% of the special assessment.
Conclusion:

Topic B: Deed Restrictions	Presenter: Dennis
Discussion: No report.
Conclusion: Dennis will be taking over deed restrictions.

Topic C: Parks & Recreation Committee	Presenter: Sharon/Lynn
Discussion: 1. Sharon spoke with city and they are sending invoice so we can have inspection. 2. Pool card count is 268. 3. Thanks to volunteers—Virginia, Sharon, Stanley, Jacob and Alyssa.
Conclusion: We're making progress! Need more volunteers.

Topic D: Internet	Presenter: Dennis
Discussion: Internet service for the office
Conclusion: Holding off for now.

Topic B: Bilingual Meetings	Presenter: Resident & Interpreter
Discussion: One of the residents requested we have an interpreter at meetings. She felt that if the Hispanic residents understood what was being said they would be more likely to volunteer and join together to make it a better neighborhood. The girls that had volunteered earlier did not translate nor did this resident's translator translate for the gentleman that requested assistance at the beginning of the meeting.
Conclusion: We need to find a volunteer that will attend all General Meetings and translate.

Next Board of Director's Meeting set for August 18, 2009.
Next General Meeting set for October 27th, 2009—Election of officers.

Meeting adjourned at 8:19 PM.

Trés Leches Cake and Raspberry Lemonade served for refreshments.
